Stop toeing the line and start stepping over it in Tupli's custom-made shoes.

Tupli

Importing its handsome, handmade footwear from Europe, Tupli lets shoe fanatics start the trends, not follow them. With in-house designers as devoted to footwear as Carrie Bradshaw is, Tupli can create shoes for any occasion, whether you desire wedding shoes, holiday themes, or just as an indication of your individuality. There's no need to settle for the basic, plain-leather look either—these creative craftsmen work with every shoe material under the sun, and adeptly employ embellishments such as pearls and crystals. Cinderella will go to the ball; she just needs to make an appointment at Tupli first. Tupli, 780 Madison Avenue, Suite 2C, New York, 212-472-2576; tupli.com.
