

Bruno Jamais Restaurant Club hosted the exclusive New York City Exhibition of famed French Artist Cyrille Margarit.

Approximately 200 members of the media viewed the exhibit and enjoyed gourmet fare and cocktails at this very exclusive and chic Upper East Side venue. Manhattan Cablevision Host Cognac Wellerlane of "Cognac's Corner" was on hand to interview artist Cyrille Margarit as he revealed his special technique of showcasing digital images projected onto sheets of brushed aluminum.

Mr. Margarit jetsets around the world, from the dangerous jungles of Africa to the glamorous cities of Europe to the fashionable Cannes Film Festival, photographing amazing images of celebrities and landscapes. Mr. Margarit's celebrity clients have included Ivana Trump, Russell Simmons, and Bruce Willis. Cognac Wellerlane asked Mr. Margarit, "What was it like to work with Ivana Trump". "She commissioned me to photograph her yacht and she was really sweet," he fondly remembered.

Cognac Wellerlane, Cyrille Margarit and his lovely mother, and Bruno Jamais at a recent exhibition at Bruno Jamais Restaurant Club.

This candid passionate artist discussed in length his love of photography, art, American culture and his profound love for the American woman's sophistication. He especially enjoyed working with prize fighter Mike Tyson and mentioned his love of photographing the heavy weight champ. The artist revealed that he adored photographing Madonna. "She possesses amazing energy which was incredible to capture on film," he expressed. "From her illustrious recording artist career, to her motion picture career, to her foray into the publishing industry, Madonna has done it all, seen it all. She truly is an amazing American woman."

Mr. Margarit's art can be purchased at Bruno Jamais Restaurant Club nightly through May 28th from 6pm-3am Monday-Saturday and Sunday evenings from 6pm-2am.

With reporting by Edward Callaghan, Katrina Lovett, and Katherine Rothman.