

Around the Town: Pre-Thanksgiving Events of Note in New York City

The Bruno Jamais 5th Anniversary Celebration/Party
Timestamp: Tuesday, November 6th, 4:30 until ??
Location: The Bruno Jamais Supper Club
24 East 81st Street, NYC

Bruno Jamais and Katherine M. Rothman CEO of KMR Communications, Inc threw open the doors of the European style supper club to fete the Club's 5th Anniversary Celebration. The evening featured hors d'oeuvres, champagne and wine courtesy of Champagne Paul Goerg and MetroWine respectively.

Our table also enjoyed our new favorite vodka, Christiania Vodka . This Norwegian vodka is better than the much touted Grey Goose and about $10 cheaper when you go to pick up a bottle at the liquor store. Christiania is currently produced at the venerable Arcus Distillery in Norway by a recipe that includes six-times column distillation, 4 generations of charcoal filtration and a unique aeration process, which eliminates the last impurities. It's almost a shame to pollute this smooth vodka with mixers, but if you must, it makes for an excellent Cosmopolitan, which one of the bartenders at Bruno's whipped up for us.

The restaurant was transformed into an art gallery for the evening featuring the works of famed French Artist Cyrille Margarit whose celebrity clients and subjects have included Russell Simons, Ivana Trump, Madonna, and Bruce Willis. Guests had the opportunity to enter a raffle to win luxe goodies such as a $25,000 necklace courtesy of Suz Andreasen Couture, and a $5,000 gift certificate Bradford Rowley Portraits. $1,600 was raised through the raffle and 100% of all proceeds will benefit the charity www.RiverKeeper.org

VIPS present included: Czech Republic Trade Commissioner Thomas Hart, Fox Five Chief Meteorologist Nick Gregory, and La Goulue Restaurant's general manager Steven Jaufreineau.
