Ramona Singer hosts bash at Covet Lounge, NYC

Tuesday night, Real Housewife of New York, Ramona Singer hosted a bash at Covet Lounge in New York City. The evening consisted of gourmet h'orderves and top shelf cocktails including champagne and fruity beverages perfect for welcoming summer!

Thanks to hairstylist, Melissa Montalvo who helped me spruce up my hair! I had been out and about since around 10:30 in the morning and needed a quick fix before heading over to Covet. Luckily for me, she's didn't mind lending a hand!

Ramona Singer told Radar Online "that some of her castmates forget that they're not in high school anymore" adding:

"I think I am doing next season, as long as it doesn't get too much crazier. I think, for the show, Sonja [Morgan] is great, I think I'm great, but ... no one gets along with everybody."

Leave it to Ramona to keep it neutral!
